St. Clare Of Assisi, Of Noble Birth, Chose Poverty And God's Work As A Career

William Wonneberger, Jr.

It was Palm Sunday, March 17, 1212, and the people of Assisi were attending Holy Mass. Suddenly, and without ceremony, the Bishop of Assisi left the altar and went among the faithful to present a branch of palm to a young and bashful maiden, Saint Clare.

That evening, when darkness had fallen, Clare left her home and went to the Church of the Portiuncula where she met Saint Francis and his fellow Brothers. Francis accompanied Clare to the altar of Our Lady. He then cut off her hair and gave her his habit, a piece of sackcloth with his cord as a girdle. It was with this simple rite than an eighteen year old virgin of noble birth dedicated her life to God.

This new order of nuns was to be named "Poor Clares" after its founder. It wasn't long before Clare's fourteen year old sister Agnes came to join her. A short time later Clare's mother and other women of noble birth came to join the Poor Clares. The nuns tended the sick brought to them and at Clare's intercession, many were cured. many were cured.

When the Saracen army of Fredrick II was ravaging the valley of Spoleto, a small group of his soldiers went to pillage the convent. Clare had the Blessed Sacrament

Last National Parks Sets, Wrestling, Athletic Meets, Postál Stationery Promised

Just two more national parks of Japan will be recognized phila-Just two more national parks of Japan will be recognized philatelically by that nation and then the very attractive series of stamps and souvenir sheets begun in 1936 will have been completed. This announcement will leave disappointment with some stamp fans for the National Parks commems and sheets have always been regarded as beautiful pieces of stamp art. Scheduled this year is a set of Chichibu-Tama National Park to appear in April, and one for Joshinetsu Highland National Park probably in the summer months.

Collectors not interested in all Japanese issues would find it possible to build a rather tidy and complete collection of all the Parks especially so if with the stamps and souvenir sheets they would incorporate photographic and post card views of the areas along with their write-ups.

But three commemorative rest with their write-ups.

But three commemorative releases have definitely been scheduled by Japan for 1954, and one of them has already been given a send-off. It was the World Speed Skating Championships 10 yen which had a first day in January. Others, according to the Postal Administration, are for the World Wrestling Championships, a May event, and the 9th National Athletic meeting in August.

In the postal stationery department there will be a small change affecting the current 5 yen postal card. The imprinted stamp will have a dropping of the "00" making the denomination just a plain "5".

A stamp booklet has been re-

A stamp booklet has been re-leased with ten of the current 10 yen definitives. Also available now is a letter sheet having a face val-ue of 10y and a selling price across the post office counter of 11y. Lat-er will come the usual postal cards for summer and New Years greeter will come the usual postal cards for summer and New Years greetings.

Under study is the changing of the paper used for the current aerogramme, or airletter. Abandoned for the year is the plan to change the method of printing the current 5 yen regular, picturing a long-tailed cock, from typography into photogravure.

Another expected to the 1954 philatelic bill of fare Japan offers is a change in the design of the present high value 500 yen regular. Under consideration as a design is the Nijubashi Bridge of the Imperial Palace, or the Diet (Parliament) Building.

Issues of a number of months past and all the above as they are released will be sold to collectors at face value plus return postage and registration by the Philatelic Agency, Tokyo Central Post Office, Tokyo, Japan. The current rate of exchange is 357 yen to one U. S. dollar. Payments can be sent by International Money Order, cashiers check or certified check.

A news bulletin via airletter about forthcoming Japanese stamps can be subscribed for at the rate of two International Reply Coupons each month. These are sold at post offices.

Comments On Canadian Stamps, Past And Present

R. Stokes Mason, of Port Dover, Ontario, Canada, wrote me recently and mentioned about his "Canada First" Stamp Album, which he has and mentioned about his "Canada First" Stamp Album, which he has published and is selling on the stamp market.

In fact, I really believe that his album will be a great help to the collector, specializing in Canadian stamps.

There are many advantages to his album. For one thing it is looseleaf style and the pages are held firmly together by a solid post binder. As there are no rings to wear page openings, and permit pages to rub against stamps, I am of the opinion that this album will make a big hit with the large army of collectors the world over, especially in the United States where there are numerous collectors specializing in stamps of their northern neighbor, Canada.

Every Canadian stamp that has Every Canadian stamp that has been issued is illustrated. The size of the album is 9 x 11½ inches.

The album comes with extra heavy stiff board covers. This protects pages and keeps them flat. The title is in gold.

Every collector who uses Mason's "Canada First" Stamp Album is appropriated of a next arrangement.

guaranteed of a neat arrangement specially designed to meet the needs of each issues. And whenneeds of each issues. And when-ever a new album appears on the market, the collectors usually ask themselves: "Will I be able to buy new pages for this album, or will the establishment that publishes it, be still in the stamp album busi-ness by the time I need extra pages?"

According to the pamphlet issued by Mr. Mason, additional pages for this album are added from time to time as new issues appear. He mentioned that they are provided at no extra cost.

All Canadian illustrated pages may be bought separately, or in complete sections.

may be bought separately, or in complete sections.

There are four sections to his album—Canada Section, Canadian Provinces and the Newfoundland Section. He also includes Canadian Revenues which is not included in many of the other albums. This should please those philatelists who are also making a side-line collection of Canadian Revenues.

The album comes in gray or are also making a side-line conection of Canadian Revenues.

The album comes in gray or white pages. According to Mr. Mason, the former being much appreciated by collectors.

The complete album (CANADA FIRST) sells for $3.00 and if you are desirous of obtaining an edition write to Mr. R. Stokes Mason, of Port Dover, Ontario, Canada.

You need not worry about the philatelic experience of Mr. Mason. For almost twenty years he conducted the Stamp Club for the Toronto Globe and Mail (a daily newspaper) in Toronto and also for the former Toronto Globe (before it was sold out to the Toronto Globe and Mail). He conducted the it was sold out to the Toronto Globe and Mail). He conducted the Stamp Club until World War II.

Rumors are flying. They cer-tainly are. It seems that there is some talk amongst the collecting fraternity that the Canadian Post Office Department has given au-thority to issue a new 15-cent, a new Wildlife and prime ministers set. These stamps, according to rumors are supposed to be issued before this April.

bury, N. J., asks me in a recent letter if this information agrees with his. Well, Mr. Gordon, I am very sorry to say that one cannot get any advance information out of the Canadian Post Office De-partment. It's their policy to sit tight until one month before the stamps are going to be issued.

Mr. Gordon also takes exception

Mr. Gordon also takes exception, in part only, to a statement that I made in a former column about those imperforates of Canada of the 1930's. He says this in his letter: "My feelings about the imperforate presentation sheets are about the same as you'rs, but must disagree about their being 'printer's waste.' They were created for presentation purposes only, by deliberate intent and through the printers inadvertence; and since printers inadvertence; and since they were most definitely made for other than postal purposes, being at best a mere specimen copy, they have absolutely no place in a postage stamp collection. And certainly I can think of nothing less rewarding investment-wise than to stock up on these items."

Designs of Canadian stamps also came up for discussion in Mr. Gor-don's letter to me. He said . . . "I don's letter to me. He said ... "I feel that Canada's postal artwork has deteriorated since the 1942-43 issue, which was one of the best executed. However, I cannot complain about the current 1-cent to 5-cent Queen Elizabeth issue. The Coronation was definitely punk."

there are catalogs listing and vas-uing them.

What many collectors do not know is that there is a reference book for collectors of plate num-ber singles—used ones, that is-just released in its third annual edition. It is the "Catalog of Used Plate Number Singles - 1954", com-piled and edited by Antonio Her-bert, Box 441, Gardena, Calif. In his foreword Mr. Herbert writes,

"Since my first publication in 1950 many requests have come to me to expand this catalogue to cover a greater field. Heretofore, the first two editions were confined to plate numbers since 1932 in the commemoratives and

All the commemoratives are covered from the first, the Columned

All the commemoratives are covered from the first, the Columbians, to date. The regulars from 1922 on are listed, as are "special" issues such as the NATO, Kansas-Nebraskas, NR A's, et c. The airmails are given complete, the booklet panes and coils from 1923 on. The catalogue is highly adaptable to being used as a check list.

Trenton Clubs Offer Cachet And Slogan

The Post Office Department has authorized a special slogan can-cellation to celebrate the 275th An-niversary of Trenton, N. J. The release will tie in with the city-wide celebration program which will start during the latter part of February or the early part of

It will be in use for a six months period. To further celebrate this event, the Capitol and Trenton Philatelic Societies will issue a cacheted envelope which will be used on the first day of use and dur-ing the six months period. Those interested in obtaining a cachet-ed cover bearing this commemo-rative cancellation may send ten cents in coin to cover full costs, to W. T. Scheid, 1756 Orchard Ave., Trenton, 10, N. J.

It is expected that the first day of use will be on February 22, however in view of the short period to prepare the die, it may not be received in time. All requests received prior to actual issuance

Janet van den Berg 5859 Olentangy Blvd, Worthington, Ohio

Walter F. Gray of Los Angeles, is basically the Pacific Coast wholesale packet king, offering an unbelievably large range of packets from almost every country and in a variety of sizes. However, of late he has been handling general sets as well and had just gotten in a grand lot of Chinese, Costa Rican, Dutch Indies, France, Mozambique, Mozambique Company, Monaco, Luxembourg, Russian, Saar and Wurttemberg material the afternoon I called.

He has extensive connections in all parts of the world and is a heavy direct importer, as the mountain piles of boxes filling his suite from floor to ceiling amply demonstrate. In fact, after Mr. Gray gave me his chair, there was hardly room for him to stand and, when his accountant came in for an afternoon on the books, he waited out in the hall until our visit was over. Wonder just how many stamps there were in all those cases anyhow? Millions and millions, I'm sure.

Wonder just how many stamps there were in all those cases anyhow? Millions and millions, I'm sure.

Mr. Gray has been interested in stamps for a good many years but didn't go into commercial philately until after his discharge from the army in 1946. He decided upon Southern California as a nice area in which to live and work, and one excellent for business purposes too because airmail service put him into close touch with all parts of the world. Since then he's been living packets, thinking packets and making packets, thinking packets and making packets, thinking packets in packets. The simple fact is that no matter how many stamps you have from a given country it will always pay you to buy a larger packet for you will get a good many new varieties, can get better copies in many cases and can recover most of the price of your new ones by selling the dupes. The new ones thus cost you very little—certainly only a fraction of the price you'd pay for them if you bought them off approval sheets or by want list.

I was particularly interested in the display packets Mr. Gray has worked out. They take more time to prepare, of course, and cost the dealer a bit more, but they enormously outsell the windowless ones because the potential buyer has a pretty good idea of just what he's getting and definitely wants things he sees.

Liking pretty things, I was particularly struck by Mr. Gray's Belgian semipostal 100 and 200 variety offerings, his 200 different Brazilian commems packet, the 200 "diff." Hungarian commems one and the 200 non-duplicate Netherlands Charities. His mounted world-wide collections and his 10,000 French Colonials mounted offering were good values indeed, and his assortment of 50c and $1 window display offerings cover the widest range in those fields I've ever seen.

In the Huntington Library in San Marino, Calif. I ran across an interesting philatelic bit while doing some research on Indian Postal History. It has to do with the setting up of stocks of current Indian and colonial stamps in Britain so that they might be sent to the dependencies for use for return postage and to cover small payments due. It's from Great Britain, House of Commons, "Parliamentary Debates", Fourth Series, Volume I of the 1892 series. Here it is.

similar facilities at the chief London and provincial post offices, and give instructions for the sale of stamps in use in British India and the various British Colonies and possessions, so as to enable persons in this country to send stamps for replies, or to defray small purchases?

The Postmaster General (Sir James Fergusson, Manchester, N.E.): It is not known if the post offices of British Colonies keep for sale stamps of the United Kingdom. It is not thought advisable to purchase and keep for sale in British post offices stamps of India and the Colonies; and the post officedoes all in its power to discourage remittances by postage stamps in letters, because of the temptations thus placed in the way of the sorters and postmen.

Most of you are familiar with and postmen.

Most of you are familiar with Arthur Szyk's multicolored 1949 Liberian ordinaries and airmails (speculators have just let go a big parcel of mints so they are freely available again) and with this recently deceased artist's unsurpassed set of album title pages designed for K. Bileski—veritable works of art which many folks (myself included) frame and use for stamp den decoration. BUT, how many of you have seen the exquisitely done engraved letterhead he did for Kasimir Bileski and used by "K" for his personal correspondence? It's probably the finest thing of its kind ever done and is bound to become a scarce collectors' item for "K" doesn't sling them around.

Make A Personal Collection

No matter in what field of stamp collecting you may be interested one always finds a bit of time to wander off the beaten path. In fact we know one party who has wandered so far that his collection of odds and ends associated with stamps has grown to such proportions that it is far bigger than his original stamp collection and is housed in dozens of albums. It has been fun too and interesting and a very cheap way of making a collection for what this man wants is something that the average collector throws away so it is easy to pick up the material and it has been very interesting to watch it accumulate and amazing at the large variety and volume, yet all of it is so closely associated with stamps that when a real out and out stamp stamps that when a real out and out stamp collector gets a look at it he wonders why he did not keep all such material that he has thrown away.

Thus we can see what interest one may find in stamp collecting and kindred things without sticking entirely to the stamps themselves

GEORGE W. LINN

Correspondence among collectors over the past 50 to 60 years and every now and then something from my past turns up that creates and brings back old memories.

I have kept a lot of these items and have gradually picked up others that did not originate from myself. I call this my PERSONAL collection, anything associated with myself or with my name or a name similar to or the same as mine and you would be amazed at what you can find if your name is one of the ordinary or usual kinds.

Watching for names is interesting. I well remember that when Watching for names is interesting. I well remember that when our family moved to Columbus, Ohio in 1892 that the city directory for several years thereafter carried no other family by the name of Linn, than our own family. The last time I had occasion to look at the directory of Columbus, Ohio there were many families by the name of Linn and curiously enough, none that were related except the offspring of our own family.

While dealing in stamps several years ago I handled lots of old covers, cheap material of little or no value, but such as many collectors accumulate. As a result I have covers with printed corner cards from Chicago where George Linn was in the Butter and Egg business, others from other cities with my own name and in various other lines of

I have a page in an album with a George Linn corner card on an envelope from Cleveland, Ohio with a 3c green of the Bank Note issue on cover. On the same page a 3c 1861 on cover with my birthday date of February 7 and a 3c 1851 on cover from Greenville, Ohio, where I

All these covers when found gave me a bit of a thrill and I have since added to them until today I have quite a little personal collection which is of interest to me at least. I add to this now and then by receiving a cover from some stamp man. These covers are usually some one of the many that I had used in the past 50 to 60 years while a publisher, stamp dealer or collector. What a thrill some of these give me as in those days I was also a printer and usually set up the type for these covers and printed them myself and I always had very attractive stationery. attractive stationery.

The latest of such covers to come to me is dated March 31, 1917 and is sent to me from Dick Rudolf of the Twin City Stamp & Coin Shop of St. Paul, Minn. Dick says he just picked this cover out of a lot of material that came from the Kendall collection which was recently broken up in St. Paul.

So there you are, it is just an idea that will add interest to your hobby if you have the urge to keep your eyes open and look for things of this nature. I have got many a thrill from seeing some of these covers from the past and I think many of you might also find it a very interesting field to follow.

For Cancellation Hounds

Now and then we print something about cancellations of an unusual nature, the response is such that we are convinced that there are a lot of collectors who go for these things. However it must be told to the uninitiated that such material is of little or no future value and that any cash put into such a collection is just for fun, so unless you are ready to go for them just for fun, better lay off.

Recently we mentioned an Oklahoma town which had but two letters in the town name, this being the shortest name in the U. S. Postal Guide. Now a New Jersey enthusiast whose name we can not decipher sends us the name of KLEINFELTERSVILLE, Pa. which he offers as the town name that is the longest one word town in the Postal Guide.

I have a very interesting list of cancels from Kenneth Knappen-berger which is too long for the space I have at present. Will give you this later as it is quite interesting.

The First Commemorative Stamp

We here in America like to think of the Columbian issue of 1892 as being the first commemorative stamps. Some however, try to place our 1869 issue as of commemorative intent but there seem to be few who will accept such classification.

Now however we have another claimant, the 1d lilac of Great Britain issued in 1881.

According to an article by W. H. S. Cheavin, F.R.M.S., F.R.P.S.L. the 1d stamp was issued 25 years after the discovery of the color Mauve, (mauveine), a derivative from coal tar. The stamp was printed with ink made from the coal tar derivative and the cotor was given as (mauveine) mauve. However when the cataloguers named the color it was called lilac and only recently has the author of this article in STAMP COLLECTING traced down the facts concerning this stamp and these facts lead to the belief that this stamp was issued 25 years later as a tribute to this discovery, thus making it a commemorative stamp. It has always been an interesting stamp, but should now attain greater consideration.

"Okay, honey, then I'll pick you up about eight! What's your name, address, and plate block number?"

Germany Recognizes 4-Power Conference

From the Red Zone of Germany on January 18 came a commen intended as propaganda in connec-tion with the four-power conference in Berlin. Issued by the East Zone, the design pictures a table with four chairs around it and a dove above, suspiciously similar to the bedraggled bird Pablo Picasso painted some time ago as a Dove of Peace

Also in the design is a crowd of people and the wording, the English equivalent of which, is "We ask for Peace with Germany". Rolf Gummesson, Stock holm, Sweden who sent the news and a copy of the stamp states that one million copies were printed and that on the first day a rationing of five stamps nor huver was made.

BY CARL P. RUETH

It could be that by the time this paper is in your mailbox that the Post Office Department will have announced the stamps for the 1954 commemorative program, and perhaps a new regular postage series. In the past few years it has been the policy to reveal early in the year, at least before this date, what items were planted least before this date, what items were planned.

Many readers have written asking what stamps are to be expected and why don't we print the schedule. Like with all other philatelic news we print it as soon as received. There are times when we put articles of importance. when we put articles of importance in as late as just a few hours before press time. But in any case, we can't print what hasn't been we can't print what hasn't been revealed by the proper sources.

As a personal guess, I would say to expect commems for both Kansas and Nebraska which have territorial centennials in 1954. If Hawaii and Alaska are granted statehood it would be reasonable to expect a stamp for both, or one for each. one for each.

one for each.

Rumored, and quite possible, are further additions to the Famous American series with the late Senator Robert A. Taft and General John J. Pershing being remembered. Claimed also to be in the planning is another National Parks set, and a set picturing the industrial and agricultural pursuits of our nation.

It would not surprise me in the

It would not surprise me in the least if the Department came up with a split program, that is, some of the above-mentioned printed at the Bureau from engraved plates, and others printed at printed. plates, and others printed at private firms in the much-discussed photogravure process. Such at least would give the public and the Department itself an idea of how good the idea is.

1. Suppose someone asked you to point out the home of John Carlyle. What commem would you show him?
2. Stratford Hall pictured on what stamp, was whose home?

Most of you know, or should since it has been mentioned here previously, of the collection I am making of the souvenir programs previously, of the collection I am making of the souvenir programs produced for the first days of issue at various places. They are gotten with the stamp tied to them with a first day cancel.

One of the most unique of the lot has been given to me by Claude E. Earbsen of New York City. It was produced in connection with the ceremonies for the Columbia University stamp January 4. It isn't a large one, about 6 inches wide by 3½ inches deep in four pages, but the cover especially is picturesque. It shows "The Trinity church Schoolhouse in old New York where the first class of Columbia — then King's College — met in 1754."

Probably the most elaborate and informative of the souvenir programs I have is that for the first day of the 50th Anniversary of day of the 50th Anniversary of Powered Flight item issued at Dayton, Ohio last May 29. It's a "production" number.

Among crusades which hardly have the ghost of a chance of suc-ceeding is that of Mystic, Conn. which not only wants a commemo-rative for its 300th anniversary of founding this year, but a special coin as well. They, meaning local and state powers that be, are mak-ing all kinds of pleadings in Wash-ington.

as was New York Caty. Alexandra was also granted a stamp.
Lawrence D. Sullivan, executive secretary of the Mystic Chamber of Commerce asked a logical questional law New York City and Northampton got that Mystic hasn't?"

And the answer in the proper order could be, votes and money.
There is no gainsaying that the New York stamp was a meritorious one. But where the POD is most unfair is that cities equally as important on like centenary and bi-and tri-centenary anniversaries are refused. You will always note that the Department takes good care of requests for stamps out of New York City or stamps out of New York City or state, worthy or no.

As to the money angle, Michael P. Garston of Torrington, Conn., who brought the above to my attention, cites the fact that the dies and metal for the coin must be paid for by the sponsors. That means that some one, or committee in New York and Northampton will have some bill footing to do. footing to do.

Apparently, the guess I made here a couple or so weeks ago that the author of "So You Want To Get It Published" was Capt. Charles E. Milbury has been verified from a number of sources by interested and cooperative readers. The author's name was given as Charis Miley which it develops is Capt. Milbury's nom de plume.

is Capt. Milbury's nom de plume

If there is one thing which is the subject of lots of complaints to this office, not about us but about some other collectors, it is that of exchanging stamps by mail.

Exchanging if carried on correctly between informed and reasonable ly between informed and reasonable persons can be a profitable experience philatelically and socially. If it wouldn't be for this means of putting stamps in each other's hands there are a lot of collectors who wouldn't have the fine albums full of stamps and covers they have today.

However there seems to be a fair quantity of people attempting to exchange who have neit er the stamps nor the temperament to do so. Half of them are those who want to palm off rank packet material for higher class stuff which someone else has, or stuff which someone else has, or stuff which someone else has, or who make known they would like to trade and then when they receive offers and stamps are heard from no more. They have the other fellow's stamps, good or bad as the case may be, then decide to give up the deal and never return the sending.

The latter, of course is dishonest, and there isnt much which can be and there isnt much which can be done about it excepting visit the guy in his home town and knock circles around his hig brown are ircles around his big brown eyes.

It should be obvious that before stamps are sent to anyone that mutual references should be sent and investigated and a firm ground established as to the interests of each participant. You can't exchange with someone who doesn't have what you want and feel pleased about it.

I have a number of foreign correspondents whom I value highly as friends. They have always been most generous and cooperative and it keeps me humping to match this it keeps me humping to match this goodwill. All of them speak their country's language, English very well, and in most cases at least well, and in most cases at least one other tongue.

I have learned many things about their nations, through letters, and through magazines, books and other publications they have sent. The education I have gotten in history and geography alone far outvalues the stamps and covers. And always, wherever he might be, a friend is priceless.

There will be a delay in delivery of this 1954 Sampler Offer. I will be away all February; from February 5th to February 28th cabbe address will be: K. Bileski, c/o B.O.A.C. Caire, Egypt, and then to end of month c/o B.O.A.C. Loaden, England.

All orders are of course to be sent to the Winnipeg address, where they will remain unoponed till my return. Orders will be filled in strict first-in-first-out sequence, as shown by postmarks, but even so it may take all March and part of April to clear these up. A pootal acknowledgement of receipt will be sent out as letter is received, if so desired. For this purpose, put letters A.B. beside return address on envelope.

Mare no idea what it will be possible to buy on this trip, but should have quite a few exceptional offers to make soon after return. Purchases will probably not arrive till April. But I'll have available descriptive lists to send out to all requesting same. Best to write in for such, as doubt if there will be enough of anything left to advertise generally. Incidentally, each and every request will receive free a rather interesting and valuable memente of this trip.

Uncle Sam Helped Here!

Rev. Michael J. O'Connor

Uncle Sam had an important part in the erection of what is termed the longest highway bridge in the Far East, the Silo Bridge, which spans the Cho-Shui-Chi River in central Formosa. American Aid came in the form of the steel and technical assistance through the ECA China Mission.

Dedication of this 1.2 miles long series of spans took place on January 28, 1953 the event drawing citizens from all over this Nationalist stronghold island. Some of them preparing to cross the structure on the opening day can be seen in the photograph above. Of course, the Chinese Nationalist flag figured prominently in the festivities, but then, so did that of the United States. The lower photograph will evidence this where the emblems of both nations are to be seen in the girder work at the top, and in the shield between the flags where the left half has a U. S. motif and the right, Chinese. Auto traffic and pedestrians crossing over on the opening day are also to be seen.

To mark the first anniversary of its opening, the Chinese Postal Administration issued a set of four stamps January 28, 1954. Two each have the same vignette, the entrance to the bridge, but differ in that the frame of the 40c vermilion is of chrysanthemums, and the $3.60 gray black, legendary Chinese figures.

A view of the spans and river occupy the central part of the designs on the remaining two. The frame of the $1.60 dark blue has legendary Chinese figures different from the $3.60, while the $5.00 rose has a peony motif border.

The bridge is made of 31 steel trusses and has a 24 foot wide road-motif border.

The bridge is made of 31 steel trusses and has a 24 foot wide roadway and a narrow-gauge railroad belonging to the Taiwan Sugar Corp. Each of the photographs have copies of the 40c vermilion in the upper right corners, in the style of maximum cards.

For stamp collectors a special set of four has been printed imperforate and mint together with an explanatory booklet in Chinese, English and French.

INDIA NATIONAL TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION

Not to be confused with the seals issued in India starting in 1941 by Dr. Hall, an American mis-sionary, formerly of Korea, are the seals issued by the India Na-tional Tuberculosis Association.

The seals for 1950 (top) and 1951 (bottom)

Tuberculosis is a major and increasing public health problem in India today. It is estimated that at least half a million people die of tuberculosis every year and there are about two and one-half million people who have this disease in an active form. Facilities for the diagnosis, isolation and treatment diagnosis, isolation and treatment of tuberculous patients are inadequate in India and it may take several years before the stage will be reached where every tuberculous patient can be isolated, cared lous patient can be isolated, cared for and rehabilitated.

The Tuberculosis Association of India (which was founded in 1939.) and its State branches have played a significant role in promoting anti-tuberculosis measures on scientific lines. In 1950 a TB seal campaign was organized and has been carried on annually since. The seals are sold not only throughout India by the various state associations but also abroad by Indian Diplomatic Missions. The campaign starts each year on Mahatma Gandhi's birthday, October, 2, and terminates on Republic Day, January 26. Day, January 26.

Day, January 26.

The 1950 seal was designed by Mr. G. Brandon of Ajmer and was printed by the Times of India Press, Bombay. About 38 million seals were printed and a sum of about 1,100,000 rupees was collected. The seals were printed in sheets of 35 (seven across by 5 down) perforated four sides with a multi-colored center surrounded by a dark brown baokground on which the name of the organization appears in orange along with date.

In 1951 the seal was designed by Shri R. N. Thakur, New Delhi. Sheets of 40 seals, 8 across by 5 down, were printed by the Cax-ton Press, New Delhi. About 32 million seals were printed and about 900,000 rupees were collected. Although the sheets were regularly issued in perforated condition, some sheets have also been discov-ered in rouletted form. Central design is printed in red and black with an orange background bear-ing name of organization, etc. in Third campaign seals were designed by Shri Ratan, New Delhi, and were also printed by the Cax-ton Press to the amount of about 30 million seals. Results of this campaign so far amount to about 600,000 rupees. Colors this year blue background. Sheets were arranged five across by four down were perforated on all four

Seals for 1952 (top) and 1953 (bottom)

The 1953 issue was designed by Shri Dev Sethi, New Delhi. About 25 million seals have been printed and distributed. Colors were brown and black with an orange red back ground sheets were arranged five across by four down and perforated on all four sides. A competition is held each year for a suitable design and prizes for a suitable design and prizes equivalent to about $110.00 are awarded the winning artists. There are usually large numbers of entries in these competitions.

Funds realized from these campaigns are utilized in providing paigns are utilized in providing wards for isolating advanced tu-berculosis cases, formation of berculosis cases, formation of care committees for assisting poor patients, starting rehabilitation centers, initiating and maintaining care and after colonies, establish-ing clinics, training tuberculosis workers, providing equipment such as x-ray and laboratory facilities in clinics and hospitals, assisting investigations into the extent of tuberculosis among children, etc.

Lipton Magazine Has Stamp Article

It wouldn't be at all surprising if one of these days soon there is a flourishing stamp club at the Thomas J. Lipton, Inc. of Hoboken, N. J. The inspiration will come from the appearance in the latest edition of the "Lipton Magazine" of "Looking For A Hobby?" It tells about the stamp collecting of John Nair, assistant director of research, and gives some general ideas about the hobby. Interest

GIBRALTAR. The 2 pence gray stamp issued in 1941 (No. 110) exists with various perforations and with watermark upright and sideways. If perforated 13½ and watermarked sideways, this variety is priced by Gibbons at 35 Pounds and by Commonwealth Catalogue at 25 Pounds. A mint copy sold at a recent London auction sale for 23 Pounds.

BERMUDA. It is reported that about $150,000 worth of the Bermuda Conference stamps were sold against a total cost for the conference of about $55,000. These stamps were soon sold out and many dealers here and in London paid a substantial premium over face for their supply.

CANADA. The Capex Exhibition set of four stamps No. 311-314 is in demand and scarce, especially the 5c value No. 312. The entire set is a good buy now as advances in price can be expected.

CORONATIONS 1953. The complete set of 106 stamps has been vances in price can be expected.

CORONATIONS 1953. The complete set of 106 stamps has been advancing in price so that the present retail is 50 to 60 percent above new issue prices. This is due to a large demand and a scarcity of complete sets. The popularity of this set has been reflected in an increased demand for the 1937 Coronations, which are slowly going up.

GREAT BRITAIN. The 1937 Coronation stamp No. 234, exists with two dots between 12 & May, which is called the colon variety. This is priced in the Commonwealth Catalogue at 16 shillings.

ADEN. The release of the Elizabeth series for Aden has resulted surcharged in 1951 for the new currency. This surcharged set was in use for a short time and evi-dently there are no large stocks available. It may eventually be as scarce and high priced as the 1937 Dhow set.

Dhow set.

CANADA. The three imperforate stamps of 1924, No. 136-138 are really scarce, especially in used condition. Scott's price for this set is $5.35 mint and $5.25 used. Gibbons price is 38/6 mint and 62/6 used.

The best of the three is the and 62/6 used.

The best of the three is the 2c green, priced by Scott at $2.75 mint or used and by Gibbons at 17/6 mint and 30/- used. The total number issued was only 50,000 each of the 1c and 2c and 100,000 of the 3c value.

Not enough for a popular country like Canada, especially when these imperforate stamps are often collected in pairs or blocks.

Ships On Stamps Unit Being Organized

A new research and study unit for collectors of ships on stamps, one of the most popular of all topical subjects, is in the process of formation. The unit proposes to prepare check-lists, gather data for articles and develop suggestions for arranging and mounting the collection.

Ring-NeckedDucks On Hunting Stamp

On Hunting Stamp

A black and white watercolor featuring two ringed-necked ducks— a drake and a hen—"slanting in" for a landing has been chosen as the design for the 1954-55 Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp, John L. Farley, Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, announced.

Harvey D. Sandstrom, 7639 E. Superior street, Duluth, Minn., is the artist who drew the winning design for the fifth annual "duck stamp" competition. This will be the 21st stamp to be issued in the Federal duck stamp series.

A panel of 21 waterfowl experts judged Mr. Sandstrom's design as the best of the 114 entries submitted in the competition. During the judging all entries were handled with complete impartiality. The artists' names and other distinguishing features were masked by mounting the entries behind large art boards which contained 5 x 7 openings.

Eighty-seven contestants, many of whom submitted more than one design, entered this year's competition, with 32 States and Canada being represented. Illinois had 11 contestants; New York, 10; California and Minnesota, 7 apiece; Connecticut, 5; Massachusetts, 4; Arizona, Nebraska, Texas, and Wisconsin each had three. Other States represented were Louisiana, Virginia, I n d i a n a, Washington, South Dakota, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Colorado, Montana, Utah, New Jersey, Missouri, Oregon, Iowa, North Carolina, Kansas, Ohio, Alabama, South Carolina, Michigan, Oklahoma, and Delaware.

Last year 53 contestants from 24
States, Alaska, and Canada, entered the contest.
Mr. Sandstrom, 28, is a native of Minnesota, and now a commercial artist in Duluth. He advises that artist in Duluth. He advises that his ambition, since boyhood, has been to become a wildlife artist. As a youth in St. Paul, he had an overwhelming interest in hunting, fishing, collecting animal skins, bird's wings, and even dabbled in amateur taxidermy.

He is a graduate of the Minneapolis School of Art, and a veteran of World War II in which he served with the Navy.

U.S. REGULAR POSTAGE 1847 TO DATE

EVERY STAMP ILLUSTRATED - 38 PAGES

HERE IS THE FINEST

- A complete album for all regular issues of United States Postage Stamps from 1847 to date. Every stamp illustrated. Arranged by issues with dates and identifying indicia over each issue and explanatory notes below. A picture of the stamp with denomination and color in each box so that even without a catalog you can identify the stamps you need in ordering from the dealers. See illustration which is half size of pages.
- Pages are 11x8½ inch, printed by lithography on heavy fine white paper of substantial body and weight so that you will feel proud of your album. Pages are punched with three holes to fit the standard three ring binder of this size.
- This set of pages consists of 38 pages which includes a title page and an extra blank page for new issues, until new supplementary pages are ready. Each year we produce supplementary pages at a nominal cost so you can always keep your album up to date. We have purposely omitted a few of the higher priced minor varieties as listed by Scott und which few collectors ever expect to own. By this method it is possible to fill every page in this splendid album and make your collection appear complete. You are not plagued by empty spaces which you never expect to fill.
- Spaces are provided for every stamp from 1847 to date including all imperforates and coils as well as all stamps issued in sheets. Regular postage issues only, no commemoratives. Commemoratives complete for the same period are included in our Unit Number 1 which is also available, see string in box below.

gate leading to the convent. She knelt before it and prayed that the convent and the nuns would be spared. The invading soldiers were standing about when a voice from the host answered, "My protection will never fail you". A sudden panic seized the patrol and they fled, sparing the convent. Clare left the convent only once during her life, to dine with Saint Francis and talk with him of God. The remainder of her time was spent in praying and spinning the

The remainder of her time was spent in praying and spinning the linen to be used for altar cloths. The voluntary confinement that Clare enjoyed did not cut her off entirely from the world. She exerted great influence from the simple convent and many bishops, cardinals, and even two popes came to her seeking advice and consultation.

It wasn't long before other convents of Poor Clares began to spring up in many places. The nuns of this Franciscan order went spring up in many places. The nuns of this Franciscan order went barefoot and constantly observed perpetual abstinence, constant sience, and poverty. Cardinal Ugolino imposed a rule on the order that forbade communal poverty. Clare spent thirty-two years struggling for the restoration of the true Franciscan rule for all without success. Then on August 9, 1253, her request was granted. Pope Innocent IV had heard her plea and restored the true Franciscan rule.

Clare's twenty-eight year illness ended on August 11, 1253, It was on this fateful day, while the Passion was being read, Clare left the earth to join her Maker. She was canonized two years later by Pope Alexander IV and her body laid to rest under the high altar of the church that bears her name, Santa Chiara at Assisi.
